PICK UP

Please pick up your student at the same location at the end of class. The teacher will allow students to leave area only with a parent or other authorized person. The museum must receive written authorization to allow the child to leave on his or her own.

Please indicate on registration form those people authorized to pick up your child.

Heroes and Heroines: Fashion Deconstructed

With our Victorian Fashion Collection on display for inspiration, this Summer Art Workshop will take clothing to extremes.

Bring in an old garment to take apart and turn into something wild, or use ones that we supply. We will be using student sewing machines (with lots of supervision) and other construction techniques.

Be prepared for an extreme fashion show on the last day of class.
